

SECTION XII
ARKANSAS ASSOCIATION OF INSTRUCTIONAL MEDIA
SCHOOL LIBRARY MEDIA SPECIALIST OF THE YEAR AWARD

Nomination Form: Return by February 7, 2018.

Nominations must be from a second party, no self-nominations.

The AAIM School Library Media Specialist of the Year Award may be given to any Arkansas School Library Media Specialist who has attained excellence in the library/media field through service to students, teachers, and community at the K-12 levels. This award will be presented at the AAIM Annual Conference, and the Arkansas recipient will be entered in the national competition sponsored by the Association for Educational Communications and Technology.

Please complete the following information:

1. Full name of nominee: _____

2. Present mailing address: _____

3. Name and address of present teaching assignment:

4. Explain why this person should receive this award. Using a separate document, provide as much information as possible.

Nominated by: _____ Date: _____

Title/Position: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ FAX: _____

E-mail: _____

The following information will be requested from the nominee by the School Library Media Specialist of the Year Committee for consideration for this award.

- Educational background.
- Honors or outstanding achievements to the community, state, or nation.
- Experience. Must have a minimum of three years' experience in the library/media field.
- Evidence of personal leadership in fulfilling the roles of teacher, information specialist, and instructional consultant as defined in Information Power: Guidelines for School Library Media Programs.
- Evidence of professional involvement in state organizations.
- Evidence of providing a quality library media program to K-12 students and teachers by implementing their personal philosophy of information technology utilization.

Please e-mail to Rebecca Downey: rdowney@bryantschools.org.