

Oh Hey There... Need Money for Your Library?

Julie Olson – julie@thatlibrarygirl.com

Goal 2: Create Community Collaboration
Goal 3: Build a Culture of Reading

<https://www.read-a-thon.com/>
www.read.a.thon.com/demo
kari@read-a-thon.com or 866-888-5155

What can the kids do during their 10 reading sessions?

- Regular classwork readers
- Bear cave or camp-out readers (under tables)
- Stinky feet reading (shoes off!)
- Extra recess readers
- Stuffy friend readers (bring a stuffed animal to read to)
- Big buddy readers (older kids read to primary kids)
- Cozy readers (pajama day)
- Breakout readers (breakout edu or digital breakouts)
- Flashlight readers
- "Share it or Tell it" readers (jokes, poems, and book talks)
- Dress-up readers (book character parade day)
- Audiobook readers (listening centers or podcasts)
- Skype or Facetime readers (read to those who live far away)
- Fairytale STEM readers (STEM with a storybook theme)

Extras

- Book Fair (a BOGO, if possible)
- Author Visit
- Book Drive
- Guest Readers from Community
- Challenges

©2019 Julie Phillips Olson - That Library Girl